Supreme Court of the United States

OCTOBER TERM, 1961

No. 861

JEFFERSON LAKE SULPHUR COMPANY
Appellant

versus

STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
Appellee

On Appeal from the Supreme Court of New Jersey

SUPPLEMENT TO THE JURISDICTIONAL STATEMENT

The Court's attention is respectfully invited to the pleadings recently filed in this Court in the original action (No. 12, October Term, 1961) entitled State of Texas vs State of New Jersey and State of Pennsylvania.

The institution of that proceeding, which involves conflicting escheat claims by three States to a single fund, emphasizes the increasing frequency of state escheat actions, with concomitantly increasing importance of the issues presented thereby.

While the novel constitutional question at issue in the instant case is apparently not present in the cited action, the pendency of that action in this Court does point the growing significance of constitutional issues involving escheat, as in the instant case.

It is again respectfully submitted that the present appeal is of such importance as to warrant plenary consideration thereof by this Court.
